Notes:

1.  Shipping location for sugar exports is the specific location - port, highway, airport or other – where the product was boarded. It is also the first documented departure of a specific shipment;

2.  Data compilation involving sugar exports by the South-Central and North-Northeastern regions of Brazil has been prepared considering specific states within those regions where the exported sugar was received;

3.  South-Central region includes the states of São Paulo, Rio de Janeiro, Paraná, Rio Grande do Sul, Santa Catarina, Goiás, Mato Grosso, Mato Grosso do Sul, Minas Gerais and Espírito Santo. North-Northeast region includes the following states: Acre, Alagoas, Amazonas, Bahia, Ceará, Maranhão, Pará, Paraíba, Pernambuco, Piauí, Rio Grande do Norte, Roraima, Sergipe and Tocantins;

4.  Statistics appearing on the SECEX database as "undeclared zone", "national product", "undeclared" or "re-export" were added to the class Others, due the impossibility of identifying the state of origin of the product;

5.  Quantity corresponds to the net weight, expressed in tonnes, of sugar exports;

6.  Value of exports FOB (Free On Board) expressed in current US dollars;

7.  The harvest year extends from April to March.
